

SUMMER / FALL INTERNSHIP

The goal of Orange Thread Live is to build deep relationships through creating unforgettable live event experiences. We're a creative event production company based in Nashville.

We're looking for a talented intern to help us create lasting experiences. You'll have an opportunity to learn about casting vision for events and then planning and executing what was once on paper. In addition to learning all that, you'll learn about why we love the color orange!

General duties include event prep and equipment management, budgeting for live events, marketing (including social media, website updates, SEO, etc), Quotes and proposals, Hands on training as a camera operator, graphics operator and other roles of a live event team, hands on training of professional grade equipment including video switchers, LED Walls, interactive media, multiscreen and more!

In this internship we expect that you'll learn the entire pre-production process including quotes, planning and executing live events from the ground up. You'll also walk away with hands on experience in multiscreen video technologies and learn a vast array of knowledge in video engineering. We'll cover system design, marketing, professional networking, leadership and relationships all well.

INTERNSHIP DETAILS:

- This internship is Part-Time (minimum of 15 hours a week).
- Intern will be paid a $500/month stipend. (plus a per-event additional pay)
- School Credit Required unless otherwise approved by Intern Coordinator.
- Schedule to be determined once applicant is accepted.
